

April 9, 1986

LB 759, 763
LR 16

ordinance can abridge the right of any person to keep and bear arms, and a felon, even if you don't like him or her, is nevertheless a person and no state can enact a law abridging their right to keep and bear arms under this constitutional provision (interruption).

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers, the time has expired for total debate on the matter. The time has expired for debate and that is the end of the issue. It rests where it is. We will proceed now to...do you have matters for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: No.

PRESIDENT: We proceed to Final Reading of LB 759. We go back to the front page and we take up certain bills for Final Reading that have no amendments. We are on Final Reading. Members, please take your seats. Under the rules, members are to be in your seats during the time of Final Reading. If the Sergeants-at-Arms would please escort some of the members very gently back to their seats. Very well. We would like to start out with everybody seated if we can, please. Senator Peterson. All right, we are now on Final Reading. We begin with LB 759. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read LB 759 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been completed with, the question is, shall LB 759 pass? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record, the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See page 2197 of the Legislative Journal.) 44 ayes, 0 nays, 5 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: A majority having voted in the affirmative, the bill is declared passed. We proceed to LB 763.

CLERK: (Read LB 763 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 763 pass? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See page 2198 of the Legislative